Proactive, service-oriented and self-motivated IT professional with extensive and progressive experience with web technologies, implementation and design. Appreciates <excellent> coding standards for clean healthy living. Driven by a passion to soak up the worlds information from books, websites and people.

Driven by interest, passion and a can-do attitude, tends to break the conformity of the scope and direction subject routes as a philosophy of gaining knowledge. Unhindered by a singular approach to anything with the amalgamation of a omnifarious set of skills, achieves greater perspective to providing solutions.
